SUBJECT: MA GOVERNMENT TAKES SHAPE: FIRST TRANCHE OF CABINET AND PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS

REF: TAIPEI 508

¶1. (SBU) Premier-designate Liu Chao-hsuan (reftel) today, April 21, announced the first tranche of seventeen appointments to his new cabinet, which will take office on May 20 following the swearing-in of President-elect Ma Ying-jeou and Vice President-elect Vincent Siew. Ma personally announced his appointments for Presidential Office Secretary General and Deputy Secretary General on April 18, following his April 14 announcement of the appointment of P.K. Chiang to head the Strait Exchange Foundation (SEF). Para 2 provides information on the Presidential Office appointments and para 3 provides information on the first tranche of cabinet appointments. (Note: We will follow up with more detailed cables and analysis on some of the key figures, as well as the overall composition of the cabinet. End note.)

Presidential Office

¶2. (SBU) New Presidential Office Appointments:

-- Secretary General Chan Chun-po will head the presidential office after serving as Ma's presidential campaign director and chief of Ma's presidential transition team. Chan also directed Ma's successful 1998 and 2002 Taipei mayoral campaigns. Chan will likely remain a Vice Chairman on the KMT Central Standing Committee, a position which he has held since January 2007. Chan, 67 years old, was born in Changhua County. He received his master's degree in political science from Harvard in 1970, and was an IV grantee in 1987. Chan is married and his two sons both graduated from American universities. He has a fairly good command (S-4) of English.

-- Deputy Secretary General Yeh Chin-chuan served as Taipei City Director of Public Health under Ma (1998-2000) and, after outstanding service during the SARS outbreak of 2003, returned to serve as Ma's deputy mayor (2004-2006). Yeh quit the deputy mayorship in an unsuccessful attempt to seek the KMT nomination in the 2006 Taipei mayoral race. He told the press on Saturday that he had declined Ma's original offer to head the Department of Health because he did not enjoy being in the limelight. Yeh, 58, is a high school classmate of Ma's. He has an M.D. from National Taiwan University and studied for his doctorate in public health at Harvard. He speaks English at the S-3 level.

-- On April 14, Ma confirmed that he will appoint KMT Vice Chairman P.K. Chiang (Pin-kung) Chairman of the Straits Exchange Foundation (SEF). Ma indicated that Chiang's extensive contacts with Chinese officials and Taiwan businesspeople in China made him the ideal candidate for the post. Chiang served two terms as legislator (2001-2008), was Chairman of the Council for Economic Planning and Development (1995-2000), and Economics Minister (1993-1995). Chiang, born in Nantou County in 1932, is 76 years old. He is married with three children, and speaks English and Japanese fluently (S-4 level).

The Cabinet

13. (SBU) Cabinet Appointments:

-- Vice Premier Paul Chiu (Cheng-hsiung) was former chairman of En Tse Commercial Bank (2003-2006) and Chairman of KMT Grand Cathay Securities (2000-2003). He also served as Finance Minister under President Lee Teng-hui (1996-2000). Chiu, a Fulbright alumnus and current member of the Fulbright board in Taiwan, received his masters and doctorate in economics from Ohio State University (1971-1978). He is 66 years old, born in Hualien County. Chiu is married, has two sons, and speaks English fluently.

-- EY Secretary General Steve Hsieh (Hsiang-chuan) is the former head of the economics and technology division of the KMT-sponsored thinktank, the National Policy Foundation. During the presidential campaign, Hsieh was an outspoken advocate of Ma's plans for economic recovery, especially the 12 proposed large-scale public investment projects. He
